THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF. Gen. W. W. Blackmar Has a Great Reception by the Veterans of New Hampshire

Assembled at The Weirs.

Commander-in-Chief Blackmar made his first official yisit to the unique camp maintained by the State of New Hamp-shire at The Weirs. He was received with the full General's salute of 17 guns, and met at the station by Department Com-I. upon the beautiful camp and its charming scenery, said: "In the neighboring town of Andover my mother was born, a New Hampshire girl, who was led to join in marriage with a minister who first preached in her village the doctrine that all mankind was not doomed to eternal perdition. So I claim kinship with you in your heritage."
Digressing from this, Gen. Blackmar paid high praise to the Woman's Relief Corps for the great work it had accomplished. He threw a graceful bouquet to Mrs. Minot and congratulated her, as well as tax should be drawn in the name of the W. R. C., upon her election as National President.

He said: "It is, indeed, my comrades, a great reward that for all of the sufferings we went through in that war, when as young men we offered all that we were and all that we had, that we should see so great an outpouring of citizens and so a people we had endured with equanimity many of our old comrades marching the discomforts of rough and muddy roads. through the streets of Boston. That Affair at Independence.

EDITOR NATIONAL TRIBUNE: In The National Tribune of Aug. 18 Serg't S. B. Nelson, Co. A. Merrill's Horse, in correcting W. H. Rickman, 4th Iowa, is right. On the day of the charge at Independence, McNeil's Brigade was in the lead. Just before we got to Independence the rebels made a stand east of the town, in the woods. The 13th Mo. was dismounted as skirmishers, the fourth man taking care of the horses. Our Major (Mazo) was wounded on the skirmish line by a piece of shell. When we got through the woods we were at the mouth of a lane a quarter of a mile east of town. Our horses were there waiting for us. Gen. McNeil rode up and ordered our Colonel, E. C. Catherward, to take his regiment, or seven companies, all there was of the 13th, and charge the town. The Colonel rode up to the Captain temporarily commanding Co. K and asked him to lead the charge. We formed in colfeet made the fire fly. We raised the yell and went for them. We took south the first street we came to, and then to the south part of town; then week will be south part of town; then we will be south part of town; then we will be south part of town; the week will be south part of town will be south part of tow first street we came to, and then to the south part of town; then west where we leave to you. I was surprised at the 4th Iowa men, in a former article, saying: "No Merrill's Horse, no 13th Mo. there." I do not think he was there, or he would have known more about it. In the issue of known more about it. In the issue of Aug. 25, Comrade H. J. McBrazer gives his version of it. He misses the mark wide. The charge was made late in the evening; he has it in the morning, and has McPherson's Cavalry in place of Pleasonton's Cavalry. The 1st Mo. comrade talks about fighting all day at Independence. In fact, the charge the 13th Mo. made was all the fighting that was done in the town. The two pieces of cannon captured were long 24-pounder brass After the capture of the town and the

MUSTERED OUT.

The National Tribune will publish, without charge, brief notices of the deaths of soldiers of the war of the rebellion or other wars. We do this as a matter of general interest to survivors of these wars. The National Tribune is the only publication having a large general circulation among those who participated in the war of the rebellion, and no other means is offered to the scattered survivors of regiments to learn of the deaths of companions-in-arms of the '60's. Comrades and others are invited to send to The National Tribune, as soon after death as possible, a brief sketch, being particular to give date and place of death, company and regiment, date of enlistment, date of discharge, and other facts regarding service, and to state what family is left by the deceased. Further, the party sending sketch should state whether he was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and if so to what Post he belonged: or if a member of other Orders, state the names of these.

MEDICAL.

IF YOU HEED MY WORDS AND ACT OF MY ADVICE YOU WILL GET

STRONG AGAIN.

More than 600,000 men-old and young-who had been weak where perfect men are strong, and who had almost given up hope of ever being strong again, have taken my advice the past six years and used BECK'S WONDER-WORKERS FOR MEX. Every man who used them as directed became strong man, and they all have reason to refer to this greatest of all nerve-building and man-making remedles as the "worn-out man's best friend." My Wonder-Workers, because of their never failing to remedy any and all of the troubles incident to premature old age, have built up by far the largest mail order medicine business in the world; and in mail order medicine business in the world; and in offering them to you I offer you the same wonderful rejuvenator that cured me six years ago when I, like you, lacked that vitality without which a person is a man only in name, and after I had been nearly ruined by the poisons of the infamous fakirs who appeal to the credulity of weak men everywhere. The almost marvelous cures made every day lead me to say to you as your friend, and on my honor as a man that I do not believe there is a case of Variooceie, Nervous Deblitty, Kidney Troubles, Lame Back, Neurathenla, Lost Vitality or Men's Weakness of any kind on earth to-day (no matter what the cause, no matter of how long standing, or no matter whether the man be old or young) that my Wonder-Workers will fall to cure easily and quicker at less expense than any other preparation made anywhere in the world if simply used at home or at your work, one tablet at a dose three times a day. They are absolutely safe to use at any time, as they are entirely free from poison of any kind, and the price is Only One Dollar always cash with order, in piain package, by express at your expense. It will cost you 25 cents at express office. If you send $1.15 to pay packing and postage, I send them under letter postage, prepaid, thus saving you 10 cents. All transactions sacredly confidential. When you order memtion this paper, the publisher of which is authorized to publish me to the world as a fraud if I fail to do as I agree. Sincerely your friend, GEO, S. RECK, 44-46 MAIN ST., SPRINGFIELD, OHIO.
